DEDICATION

The Cardigan Welsh Corgi Club of America, Inc dedicates the Megan Competition to the memory of Roberta Holden Bole, who brought the first Cardigans to this country in 1931. She was the guiding force behind the formation of the Cardigan Welsh Corgi Club of America in 1935. She organized many of the early Cardigan supported shows and Specialties.

In all, Mrs. Bole imported more than 20 Cardigans. Some died in transit. Others she was never able to register. Nevertheless, through her continuing efforts, she was able to launch the breed in this country for all of us to enjoy.

The Megan Competition Chair will make the judging assignments based on class size and the Judge's Reference Number assigned to each judge. If classes happen to be equal, bitches will be assigned first by their assigned Number. In each case the unassigned judge will serve as Referee, if needed. Judging assignments will be as follows:

- 1) Judges (1) and (2) will judge the second largest dog class and the second largest bitch class.
- 2) Judges (1) and (3) will judge the largest class and two smallest classes of the opposite sex to the largest class.

- c. Procedure: Judging will be divided into a Preliminary and Final Round of competition. The Final Round will follow the completion of the Preliminary Round of all 8 Classes.

1) Preliminary Round: Each judge will examine each entry individually on the table and then both judges will stand together while each entry is moved. When preliminary judging of the entire class is completed, the judges will confer and are tasked with selecting the Best and Runner-up in the class. With all Preliminary Round entrants in the ring, the judges will present the Best and Runner-up. The Best in Class will move on to the Final Round with the Runner-Up standing by for Megan Runner-Up. All other entrants will be excused from further competition.

2) Final Round: The Best of the eight (8) classes will be judged together in the ring by all three judges. Any judge who has not previously examined an entrant will be provided an opportunity to go over that dog/bitch on the table. Once all dogs have been examined and moved, the judges will make their award for Best Cardigan Welsh Corgi in Megan. The Runner-Up from the class will then enter the ring to be judged for Megan Runner-Up. The award order shall be as follows:

- Best Cardigan Welsh Corgi
- Runner-Up To Best Cardigan Welsh Corgi
